NOMINATION FORM

Outstanding contribution and community service for the prevention of violence towards women and children.

Award criteria:

1. Individuals cannot nominate themselves.
2. All nomination information, photos and supporting material may be used by the Awards office for promotional purposes.
3. Nominees agree to media publicity and promotion associated with the Awards nomination, including any photos submitted or taken at the Awards Presentation ceremony.
4. Nominations close on Wednesday 17th November 2017.
5. Nominees who are selected as Finalists should endeavour to attend the Gala Awards Presentation Dinner on Friday 8th December 2017. Inability to attend does not disqualify entry.
6. Previous winners of the Flame of Change Unifying Support are not eligible to be nominated in an Award category they have already won.

Please explain the achievement, the background and reasons for the nomination and supply any supporting material that may assist. Outstanding contribution and community service for the prevention of violence toward women and children includes areas such as: education, health, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander initiatives, fund-raising, charitable and voluntary service, multicultural initiatives, arts and media.

All applications must show how they have made a difference in the domestic violence and Aboriginal family violence and homelessness sector/community.

Written submissions should be around 500 words. Videos and other forms of media are welcome.
