WUINPARRINTHI

What we offer

Wuinparrintheta offers a culturally safe space for young fellas to yarn up about topics they want to discuss. This may include family, relationships, connection to culture - in a setting that creates safe and positive change.

You will drive the conversations, topics are created by the gathering members, your voice will be listened to.

If you're seeking a culturally safe and positive space to talk about things, come and join us to share stories and find a path forward.

Eligibility

Aboriginal males aged 14-18, who may be connected to other organisations or programs.

Getting Started
